

Author instructions for paper preparation

A manuscript should be submitted to Advanced Biomaterials and Devices in Medicine in electronic format by e-mail: editors@abiodem.com.

A manuscript should include:

- (a) Title of paper, name(s) of author(s), author affiliations and author contact information; corresponding author should be marked by an asterisk,
- (b) Abstract,
- (c) Keywords (no more than 10),
- (d) Manuscript text with figures, figure captions and tables inserted within the text at the appropriate positions, or grouped at the end,
- (e) Acknowledgements (optional),
- (f) List of references including full bibliographical information.

References should be numbered sequentially and the citation numbers are included in the text in square brackets.

The manuscript file should be formatted as one-spaced, single-column text without justification.

Technical jargon should be avoided as far as possible and clearly explained where its use is unavoidable. Abbreviations, particularly those that are not standard, should also be kept to a minimum. Where unavoidable, abbreviations should be defined in the text or legends at their first occurrence, and abbreviations should be used thereafter.

The manuscript should be provided in both Microsoft Word and PDF files.
